A block of 15 rooms being held for our group until October 1.

Call #. 276-285-5040 for reservations

The Sessions is a Marriott, a beautifully restored old building in Bristol that was restored by the same restoration group that restored the one in St Paul, The Western Front. Several of you may have stayed there. Our contact, Katrina, from The Western Front, is working at The Sessions. Check out the website for The Sessions Hotel (www.sessionshotel.com), I think you will be impressed. The reason for the change in the hotel is we were not given rates as quoted, so we looked elsewhere.

Friday is the day we arrive and get settled.

Saturday will be an open day to explore, shop, etc. Saturday evening we will attend a performance at the Carter Family Fold. The Carter Family Fold is the Carter Family Homestead (www.carterfamilyfold.org). It is dedicated to the preservation and performance of old time country and bluegrass music. It is located in Hilton, VA (approximately 25 mile drive from Bristol). The performance is at 7:30. Tickets are $10 per person at the door. Plan to arrive early and browse the museum (opens at 6:00 pm). There is a snack bar. No alcoholic drinks. No reserved seating or reserved parking. Please RSVP to Dave or Janet Jackman if you plan to attend this event.

Sunday is an open day. We suggest The Barter Theatre in Abington (16 miles away). Murder on the Orient Express performance at 3:00. Call 276-628-3981 for tickets. Abington has restaurants and shopping.

Monday is the drive to Burks Garden. Lunch is at Maddie's. We do need a head count so please reply in email that you will be eating her delicious Amish cooking. We can return by way of Big Walker Outlook, or the scenic drive we came on, or 4 lane highway back.

Tuesday is a driving tour to Boone, NC. Billy and Judy Hillman will be our tour guides. Tuesday evening will be the banquet at the hotel, catered by Southern Craft BBQ (southerncraftbbq.com), and entertainment by The Luthiers—Wayne Henderson and Spencer Strickland. Those of you that have attended the tour in previous years might recognize these names. There will be an additional charge for the banquet and entertainment. Details to follow.

Wednesday we return home.

Recommend:

Birthplace of Country Music Museum—(tickets available at the door)
Photo Op—Country Music Mural
Shopping—The Pinnacle
Cootie Browns— great food
Blackbird Bakery

Reminder: Please email Dave or Janet Jackman if you are planning to join us in Bristol. We need a count for Carter Fold for Saturday evening, Maddie's lunch on Monday, lunch at Sherry and JP's Chicken House in Mountain City, TN, on Tuesday, and banquet Tuesday evening.

Looking forward to seeing you at the 48th fall color tour in Bristol!
